CLINICAL PROFESSIONS

"I am very grateful for the forensic analysis you have carried out in your report. Your report is so clear and comprehensive that there is little that I can identify that I would like to ask you to clarify at the conference." Claimant Solicitor

All experts at Bush and Co have access to an ongoing programme of in-house training designed to cover all relevant aspects of medico legal work, from case law to their role and responsibilities as experts within the various aspects of the claim cycle. Our associate expert witnesses are supported via our expert witness leadership team and quality assurance team. Our experts fully understand what is expected of them and the importance of providing a quality report suitable for Court purposes. Here's just a snippet of what we cover...
